Tabuleiro's Procession

Traditionally, the board is carried by a girl dressed in white and must be the height of it. This is decorated by colorful paper flowers, wheat cobs, 30 loaves, 400grs each. The top of the board is also composed of a crown topped by the Cross of Christ or the Dove of the Holy Spirit.

Ornamented streets

Another of the oldest traditions and origin of Tomar present in the Feast of The Trays, are the carpets of paper flowers in the streets of the city. The streets of the historic center and nowadays a little throughout the city are ornamented with flowers giving color and joy to the Templar city. These streets are in a healthy competition to see which is the most beautiful one.

Butler's Parade

it is not known with rigor the origin of the Butler's Parade', but it is estimated that, at first, it would be a hymn to abundance. The oxen are adorned with necklaces and flower earrings, parading through the streets of the city to the sound of rockets, gaiteiros and music band and accompanied by several knights as well as some carriages that transport the Butlers and guests.
